Membership Renewals for 2018-2019 Season Now Open

Registration for the 2018-2019 season is now open through EntryEeze at <https://comp.entryeeze.com/Membership/Welcome.aspx?cid=6>. EntryEeze includes links to our waivers, releases, consent for medical treatment, SafeSport pledges, and volunteer areas. Please read through these documents carefully as your processed application is your legal acceptance of these waivers and rules.

Beginning July 1st, members can access their digital membership cards on the USFS website by clicking "Account," then "Member Profile" or the member card icon on the home screen of Members Only. You can download a digital copy and save it to your phone or print a copy. Coaches, officials, and volunteers can also print a copy of their compliance card via the compliance tab for use at test sessions, competitions, and club activities.

If you are competing or testing at a U.S. Figure Skating sanctioned event that begins on or after July 1, you must renew your membership prior to the application deadline. Please allow ample time for your membership to be processed. Coaches must complete renewals before July 1 to avoid a late fee penalty and complete a background check and CER requirements.

If you have not fulfilled your service hours requirement for 2017-2018, you will be unable to register until you satisfy this obligation. Please contact membership chair Francesca Sichenze-Bryant with any questions through our website at AtlantaFSC.org.

SPOTLIGHT SKATER

Elizabeth Douglas

What are your favorite and least favorite elements?

My favorite elements are jumps because I love the feeling of being in the air, and it is so rewarding to land a jump for the first time. My least favorite elements are probably moves and footwork because I have the tendency to randomly trip while doing them.

Favorite program and competitive accomplishments?

My favorite program is my current long program to "The Arena" by Lindsey Stirling. I love the program because the music is powerful and graceful at the same time. I made final rounds for Atlanta Open at the Intermediate level this year, and it was my first time competing at that level.

Who is your favorite skater?

My favorite skaters are Maia and Alex Shibutani because they are so graceful and artistic. They make skating look so easy while doing everything in sync. I love watching them do their twizzles together.

What is the most memorable event of your skating career?

When I first started skating, I used to always skate a session with Alice on it. I remember always being scared to skate when she was on because she was so much better than me, but I also remember being so inspired to work harder because of her perseverance. A lot of skaters have inspired me, and it has made me realize that skating is not a sport where any other skater is competition. I have made so many close friends from skating, and we are always friends even when we compete against each other.

Best advice I ever received:

Don't overthink it and have fun. ~ Mom

Tell us about your school, family and extra-curricular activities.

I am a rising freshman at Johns Creek High School. I will be in the orchestra and on the Color Guard team.

I did a variety of volunteer work for my Middle School Junior Beta Club.

I have a dog named Dyno, and I play the viola and piano.

Tell us something about yourself or your family that no one knows.

I thought I might stop skating in 6th grade because I didn't think I could get up really early to skate, but now I love skating early in the morning because the sessions are always empty.

What famous person would you most like to meet?

I would like to meet Pope Francis because he is a loving leader and major figure in my life.

My family is most like the TV show

"Jeopardy" because we do not watch any other shows.

What are your future skating and educational goals?

I hope to land my double Axel and have it clean soon. I also hope to consistently land all doubles in competition.

I plan to attend college and skate. I want to do something in the science or medical field.

My favorite things are

Dyno, books, and skating.

Whom do you most admire?

I admire my Grandmother Rosie the most because she has overcome great adversities through her strength and faith, and she always does this with a smile on her face.

Who would you choose to play you in the movie of your life?

I'd rather write a book about my life than have a random person pretend to be me in a movie.

Favorite word: Believe

Least favorite word: Fake

What turns me off: Hypocrites

Favorite food: Pasta

Least favorite food: Bananas

Favorite book series: The Throne of Glass

Favorite musical group: Imagine Dragons

Favorite colors: Periwinkle or turquoise

I would never want to be: Math teacher

If I weren't a skater, I would have been: A swimmer

Pet peeve: Not being on time

If I were stranded on a desert island, I would have to have: a Bible, a book, and a phone

Three words that best describe me: Organized, honest, and petite

Favorite Vacation: Europe, especially Paris

U.S. Figure Skating To Launch New Excel Program in September

The Program Development Committee of U.S. Figure Skating is excited to announce the launch of the Excel Program, a new competitive opportunity created to encourage skaters to develop their technical ability in a competitive environment that promotes success. The new Excel Program will be effective September 1, 2018; an outline of the levels and requirements for the program can be found on the USFS website under "Programs."

The Excel Program has been created to provide competitive opportunities for skaters that allow them to develop their technical skills and continue their progress in the sport through the following structure:

- Creating levels that allow skaters to push the technical envelope beyond the test requirements
- Creation of Excel Challenge Series - a series of competitions across the country at which, competitors earn points toward the goal of receiving an invitation to compete in the Series Final
- Bridging the transition from Learn to Skate USA and U.S. Figure Skating
- Continued encouragement of progression

Buckhead's Puppet Master

Our Own Nancy Ellis Riggs!

From "Simply Buckhead" By H.M. Cauley

For 20 years, Nancy Riggs has had a tight grip on her arts nonprofit. Literally. The North Buckhead resident has devoted her talents as an actress and storyteller to animating educational hand and shadow puppets. As the director of the touring The Piccadilly Puppets Company, she comes up with characters and tales to take to schools and festivals. It's a gig she fell into after answering an ad for the Center for Puppetry Arts in Midtown.

"I was an actress and had studied acting in college, but I was used to doing all sorts of things," she recalls. "Then I heard the center needed puppeteers to go out on the road. They asked if I had any experience, and I said no, so they let me meet with the director, who taught me the basics before the audition. In the end, I made them laugh and got hired."

In 1997, after two years honing her skills with the center, Riggs became the third member of the Piccadilly team, which she took over in 2011 as the only employee. Now, she's responsible for the entire show, from concept to presentation, and all the administrative details that go with it.

"Most of the shows are one person, but if I need someone else, I find out who's available," she explains. "But I know all of the shows. Once it's in the repertoire, I keep it. Some have been around more than 20 years, and I'll often update a line here or there to keep them fresh."

Of the 180 shows she puts on each year, the most popular is one about the lifecycle of a butterfly that Riggs also presents in Spanish for bilingual audiences. Whatever the story, it ties into the schools' curriculums, from science to literature. "The holiday shows are the only exception, but even The Night Before Christmas has literary ties to the famous poem," says Riggs. "I've found that if they're working on something like the water cycle, it's more fun when done with puppets. I also have a couple of Bible stories and some folk tales."

Riggs has even found a way to work her hobby into a show. "My father was a founder of the Atlanta Figure Skating Club, and when I was a child, my whole family skated," she says. "I got back into it about 13 years ago, and I still go to Alpharetta to train twice a week. So when I had the chance, I had an ice skater in a holiday show."

Along with schools, Riggs and her puppets most frequently pop up at libraries, preschools, churches and festivals, where her audience is usually children ages 2 to 10. "Children respond to puppets because they're very relatable," says Riggs. "Kids in the upper ages often come in thinking, 'This isn't for me.' But once you get them laughing, they realize it is. There's a misconception that puppets are just for small children."

Neither is it a fading art form. "Is puppetry dying? That conversation happens all the time in puppetry circles," says Riggs. "Here in Atlanta, it's thriving. The Center for Puppetry Arts is a hub that has spawned a number of puppeteers and raised awareness in the community of how creative puppetry can be. Some puppeteers I've worked with have gone into film and special effects. One worked on Stranger Things. Then something like The Lion King will come along and expand people's idea of what puppetry can do. It's such a creative form, that it just reinvents itself."
