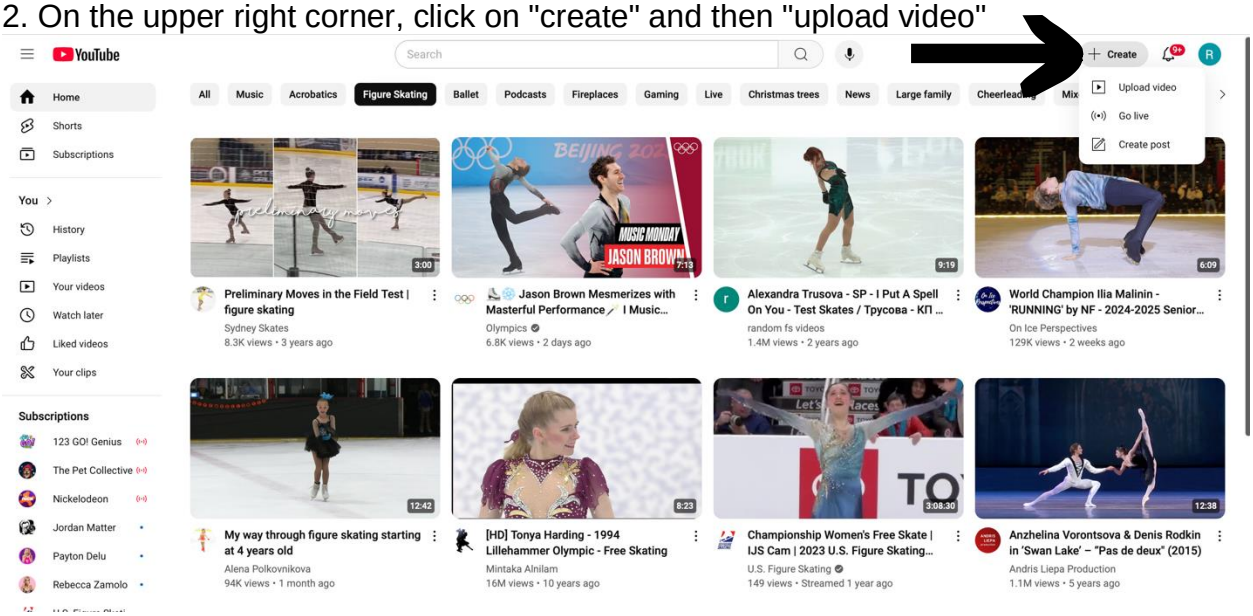
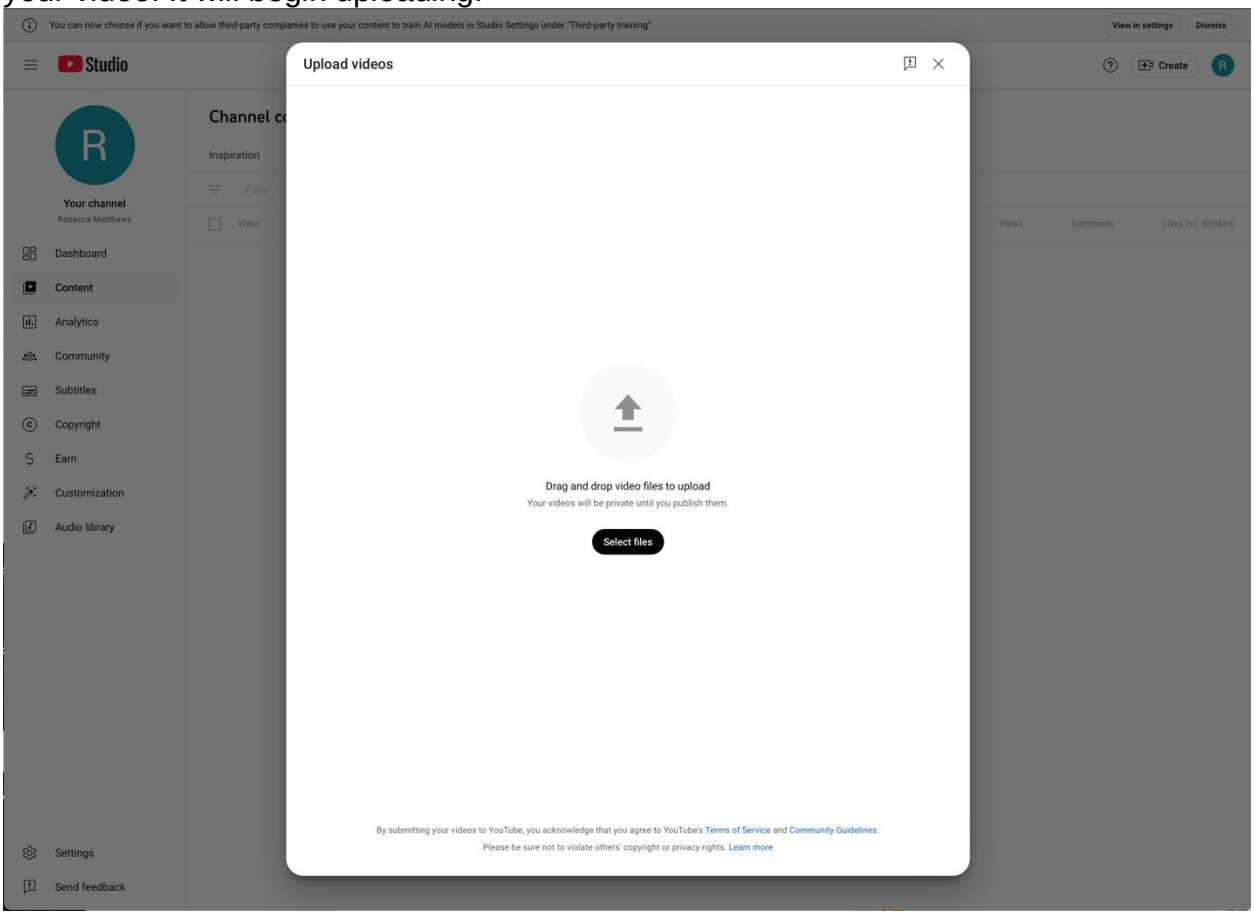
How to upload your test videos to YouTube:

1. Go to www.youtube.com and sign in (click on "sign in" in the upper right hand corner; use your Google account information to sign in; if you do not have a Google account, create a new one)

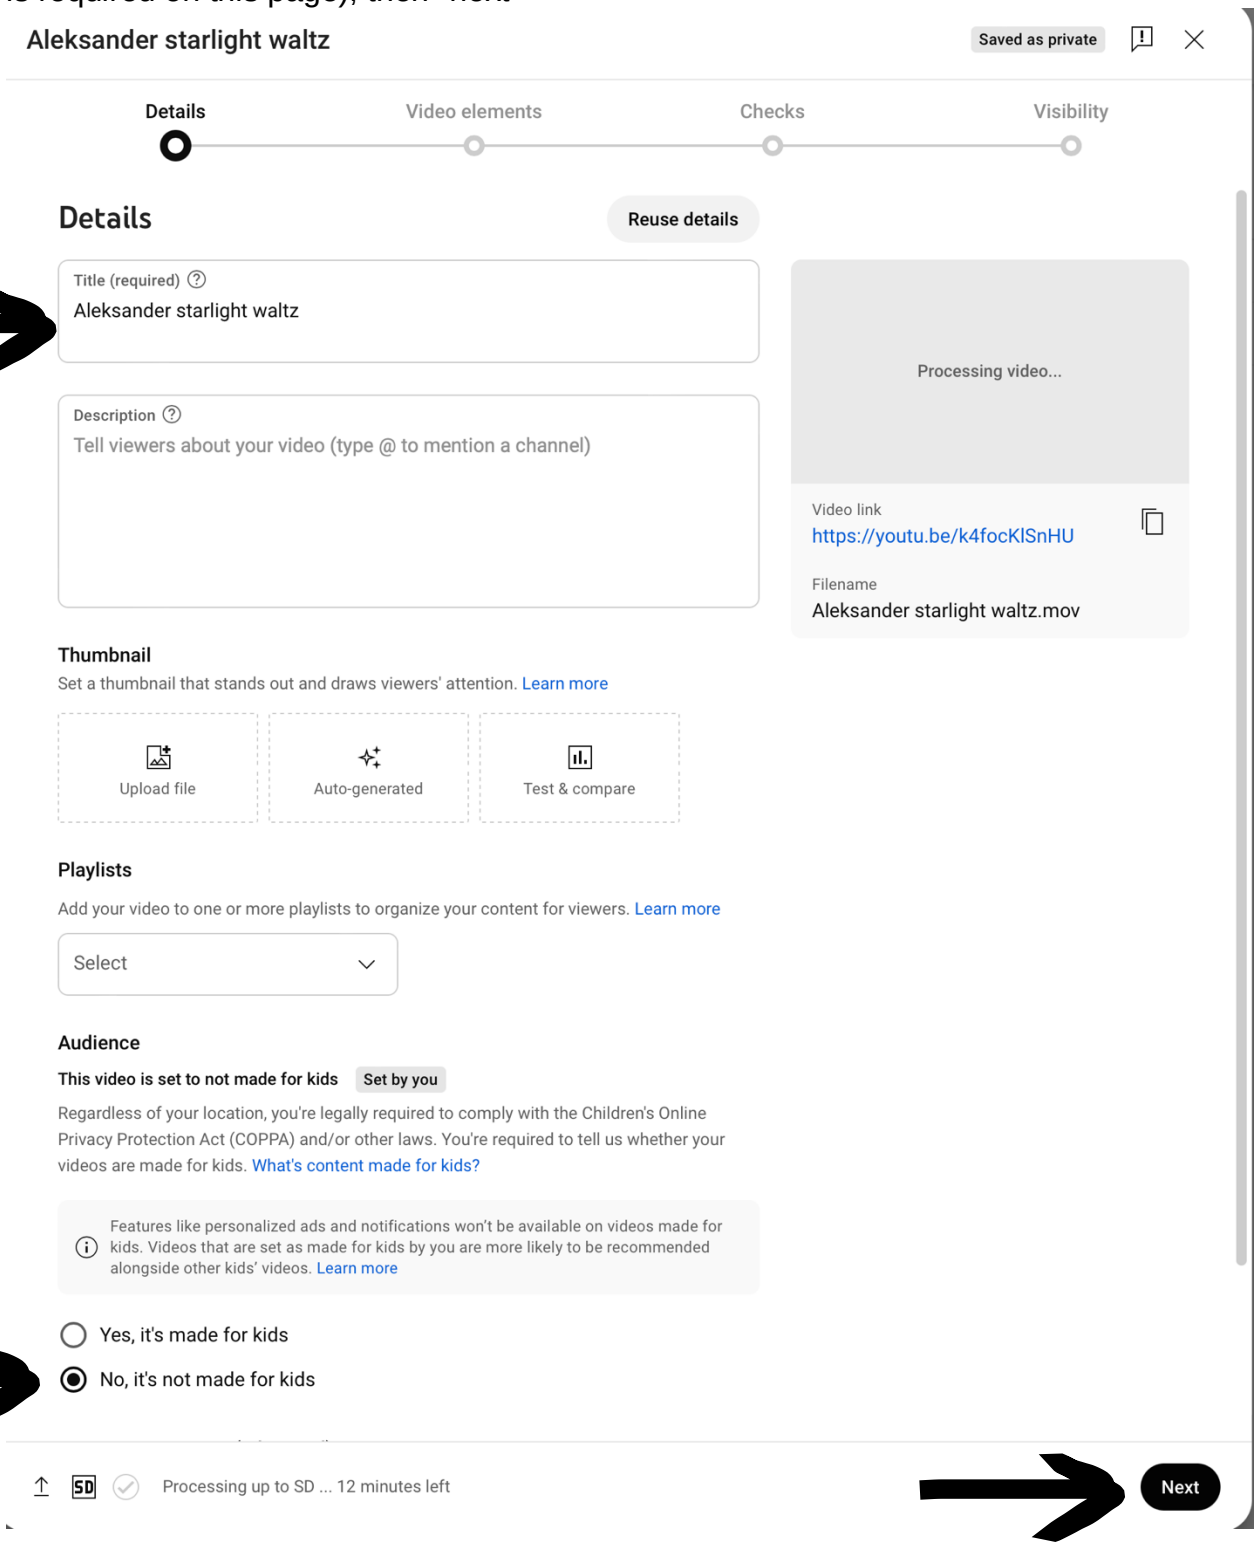
2. On the upper right corner, click on "create" and then "upload video"



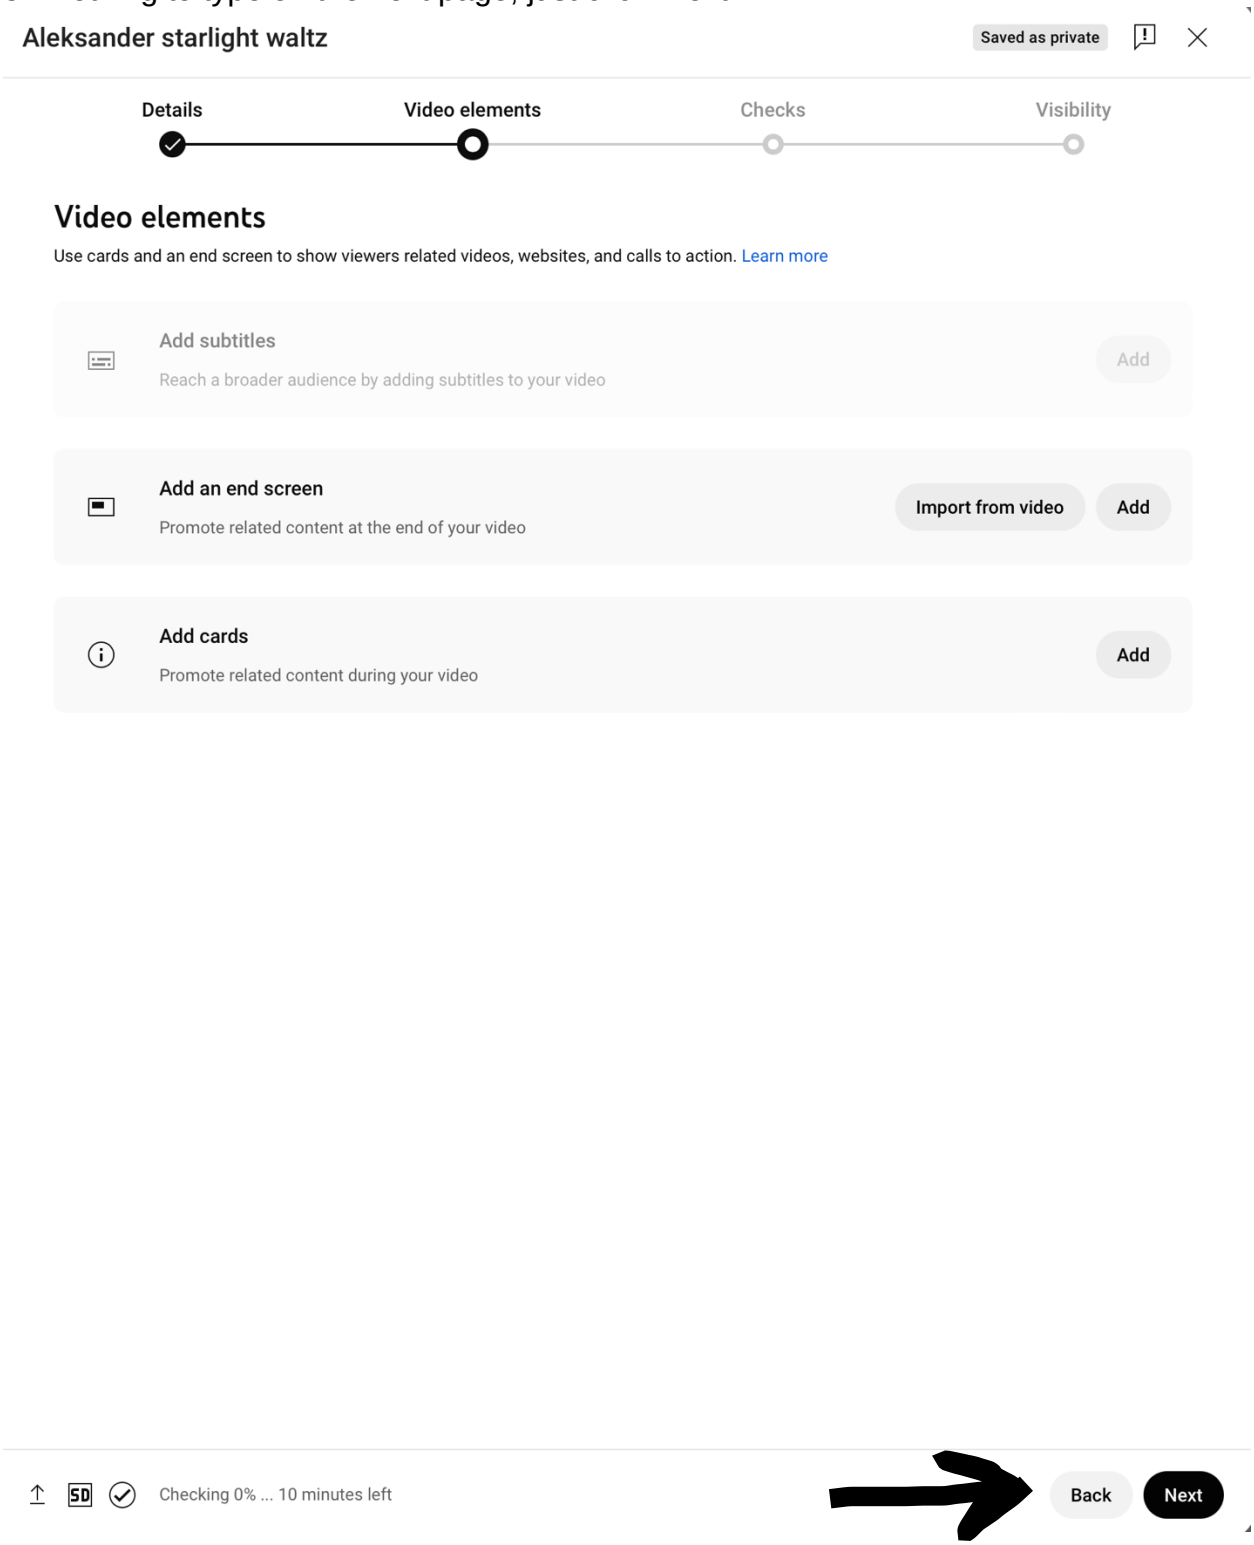
3. Next, this will come up. Drag and drop your video, or click "select files" and select your video. It will begin uploading.



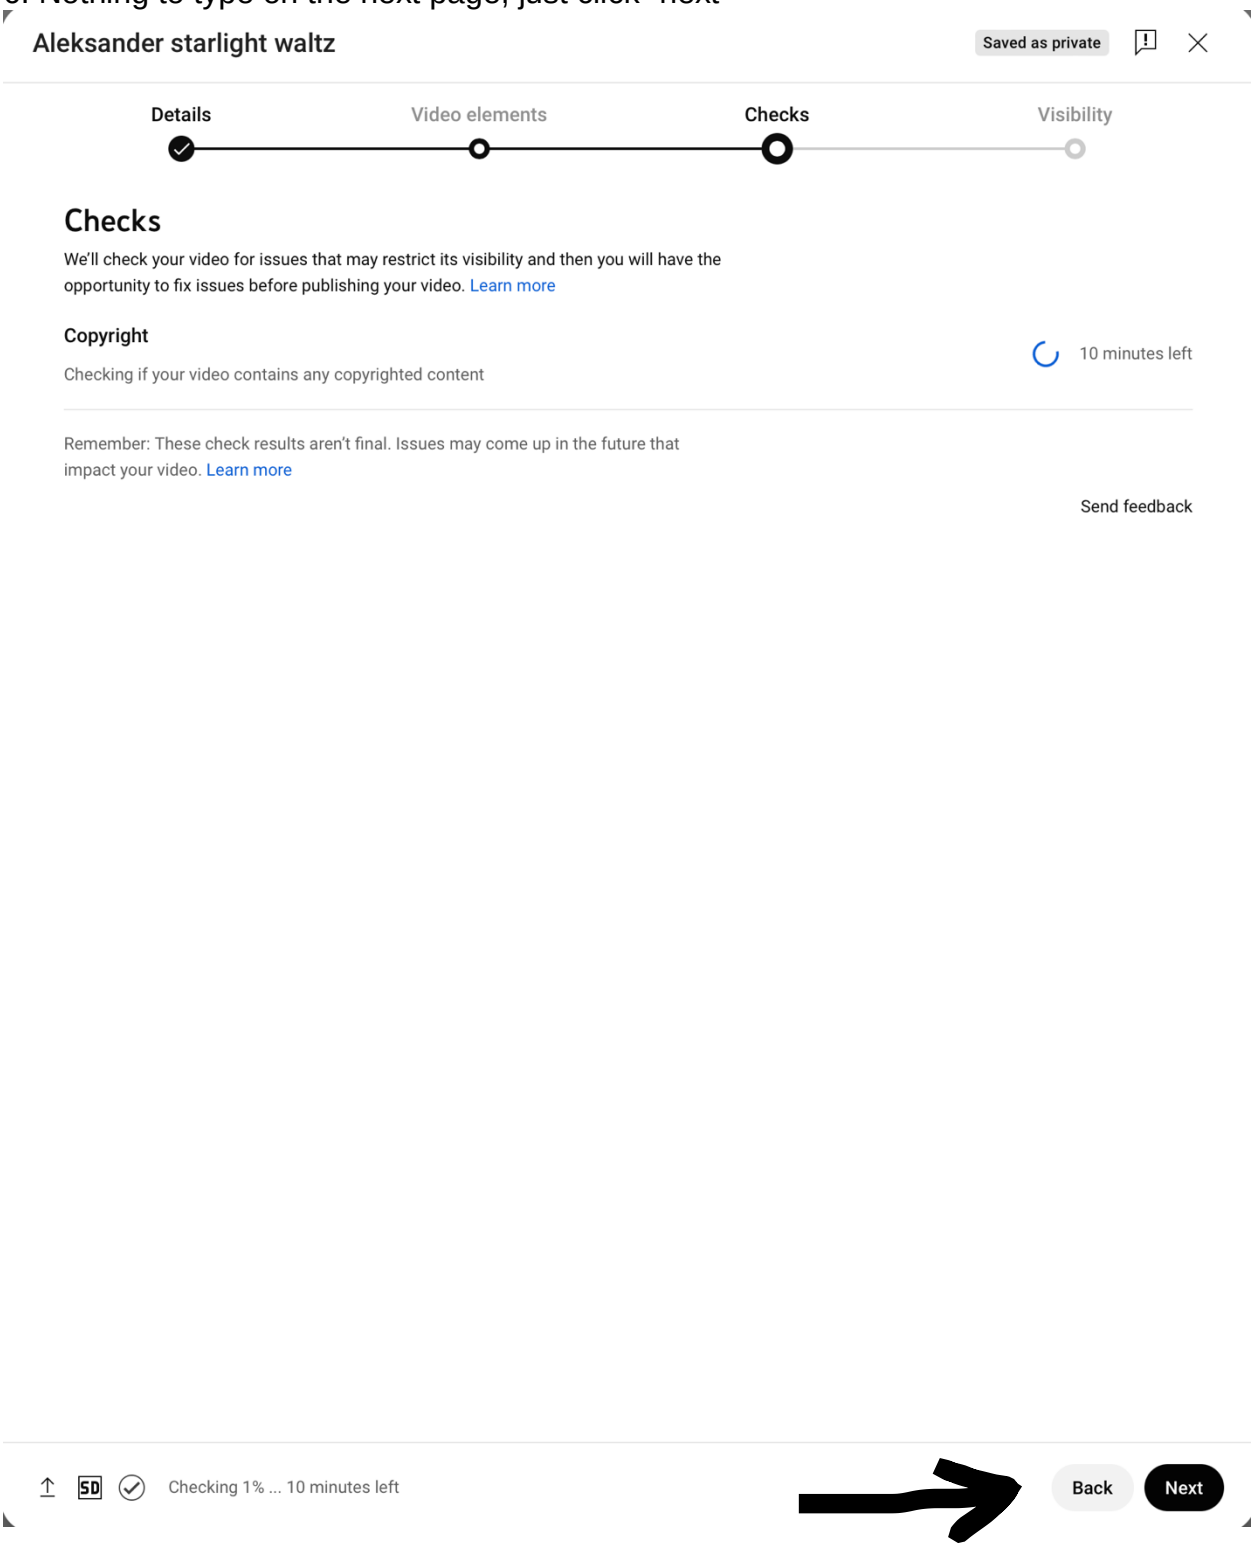
4. Type in a title for the video, and click "no, it's not made for kids" (no other information is required on this page), then "next"



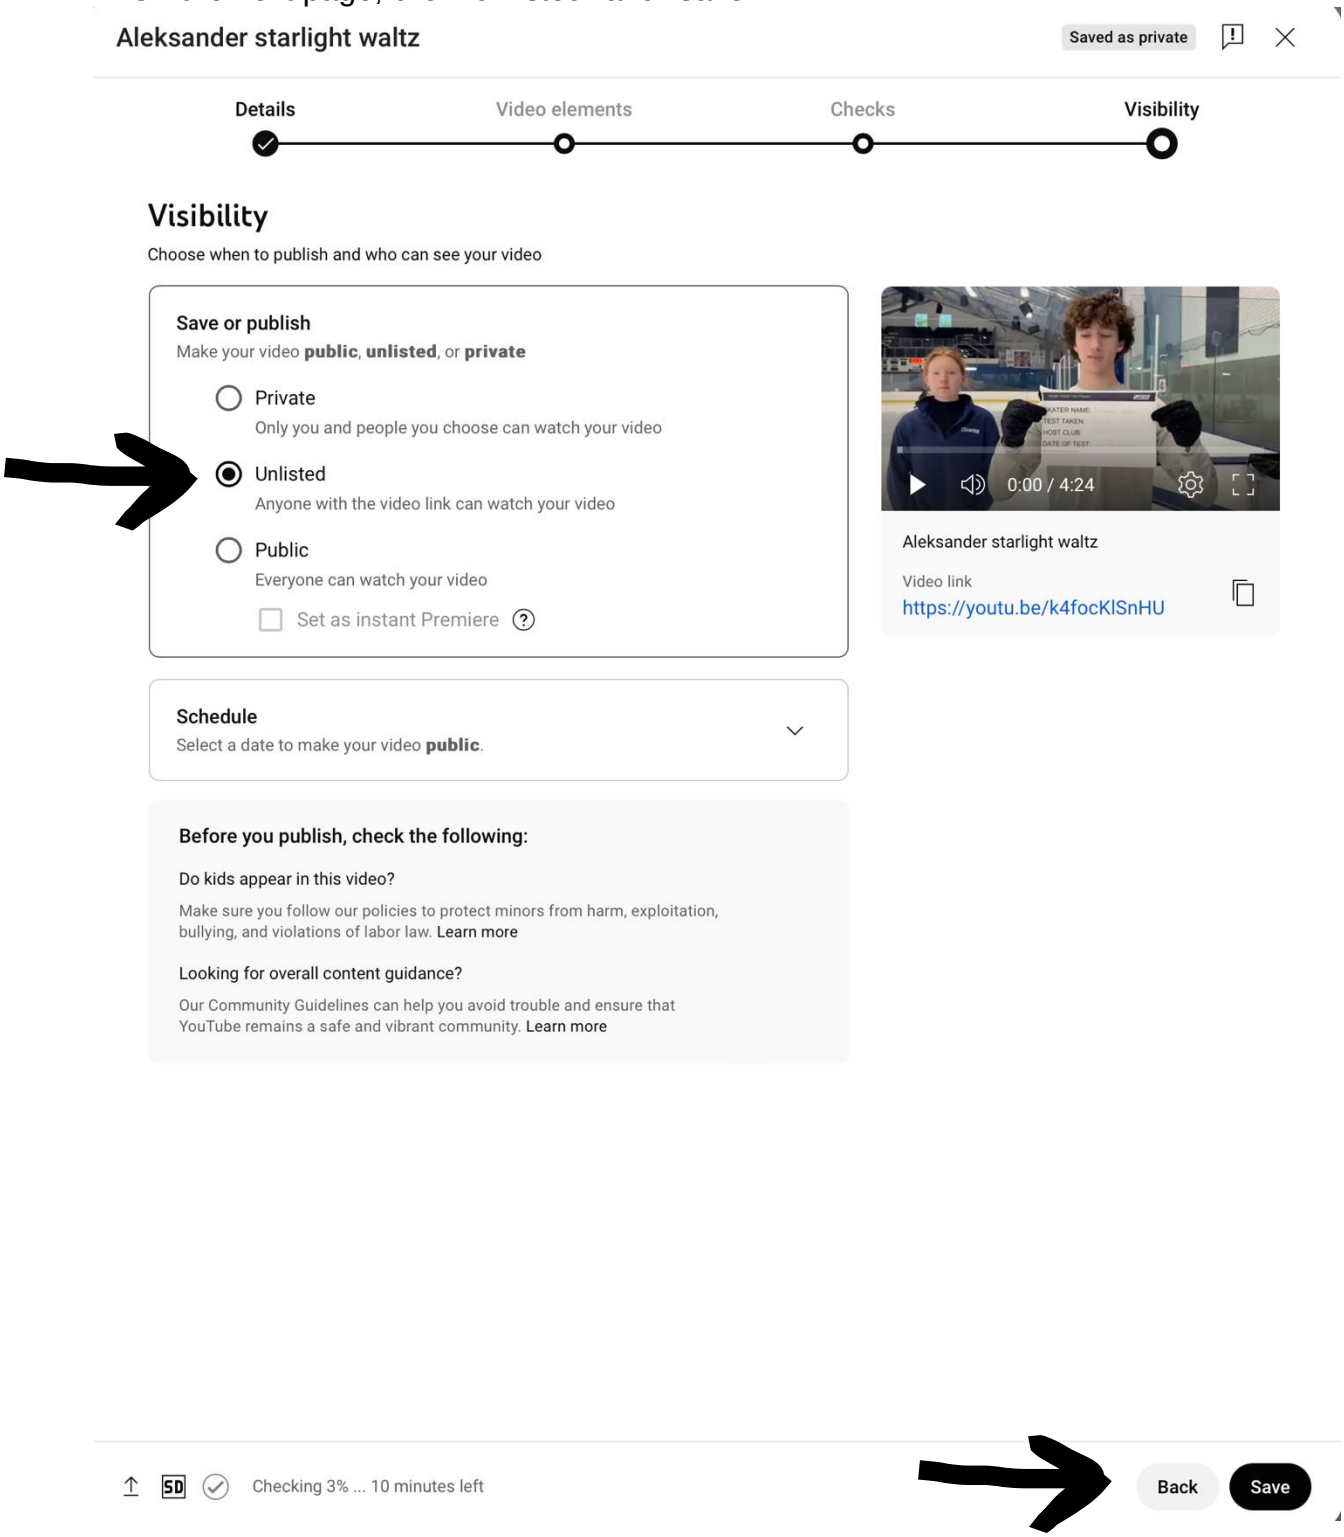
5. Nothing to type on the next page; just click "next"



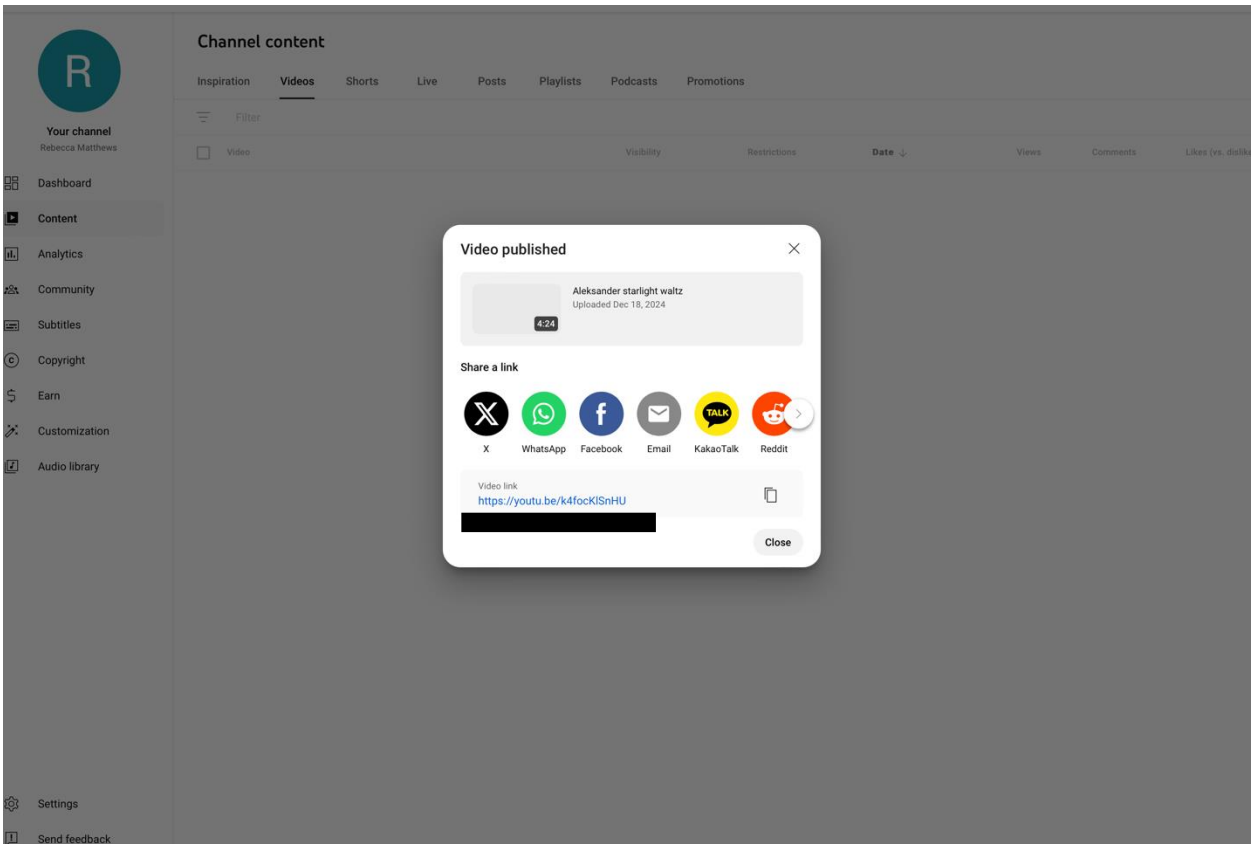
6. Nothing to type on the next page; just click "next"



7. On the next page, click "unlisted" and "save"

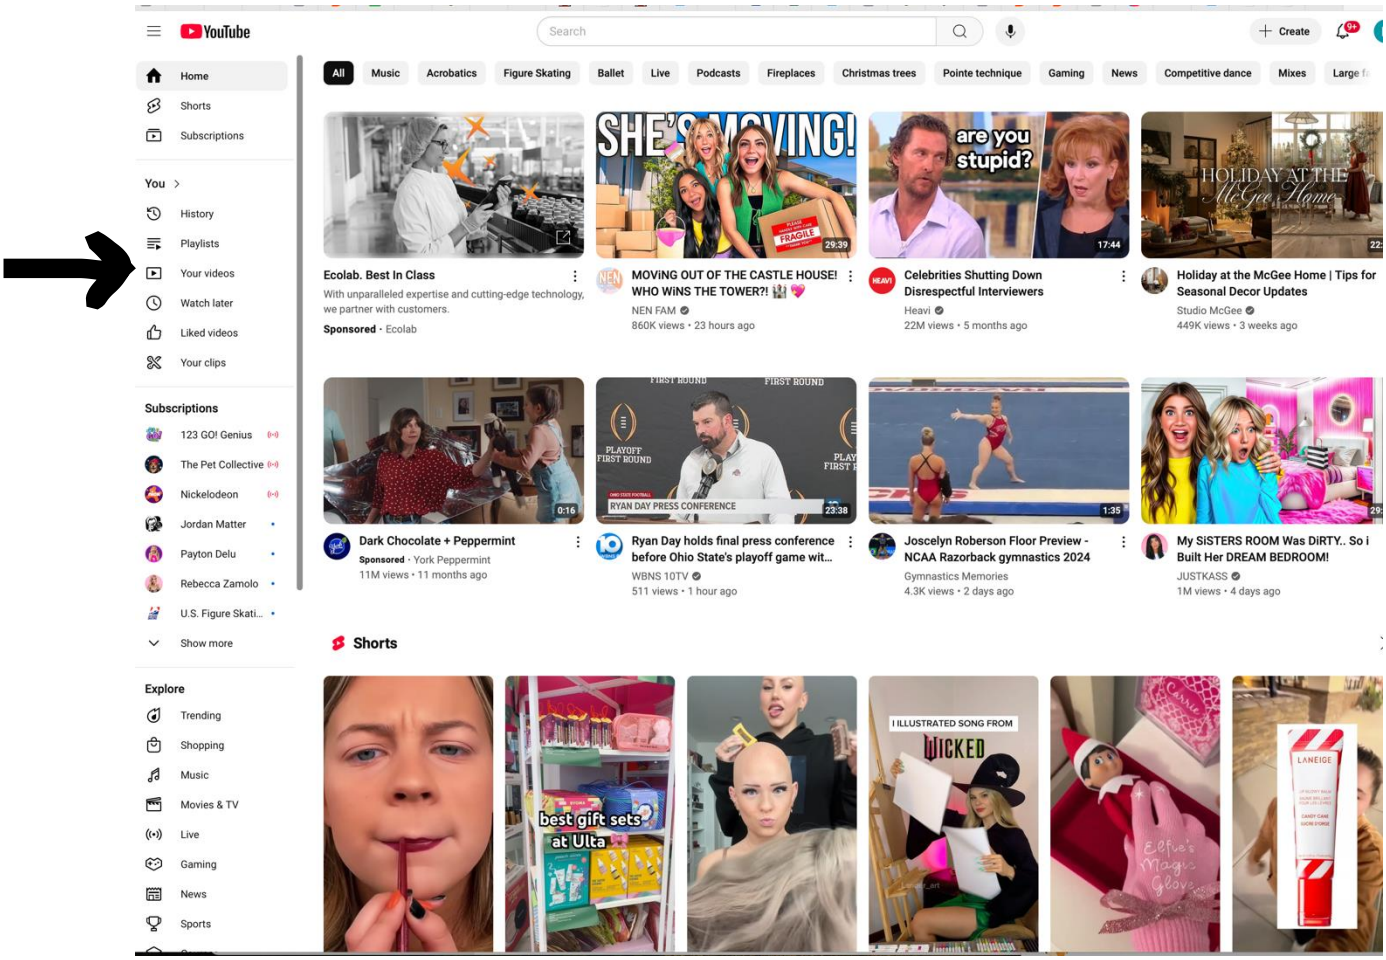


8. Next, the link to your video will pop up. You can copy and paste this and send it to the test chair (testing@atlantafsc.com); you're done. (If you forget to do this, see #9 for an alternate way to get your video link)

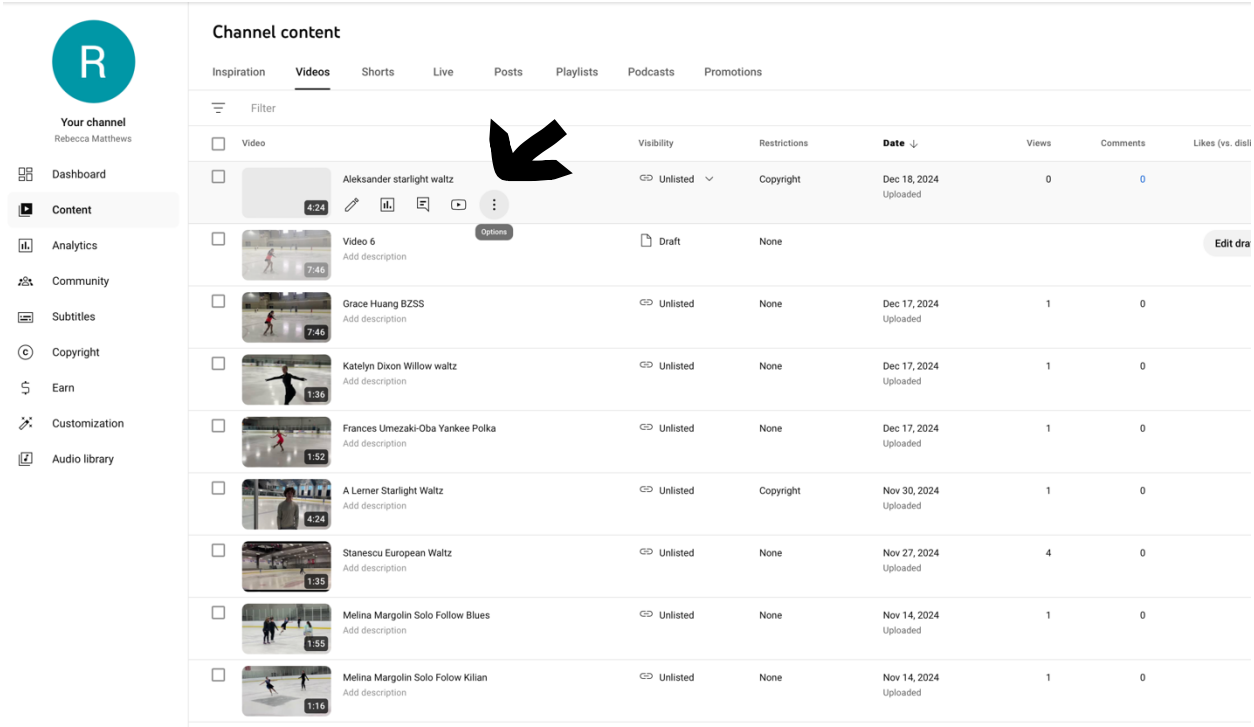


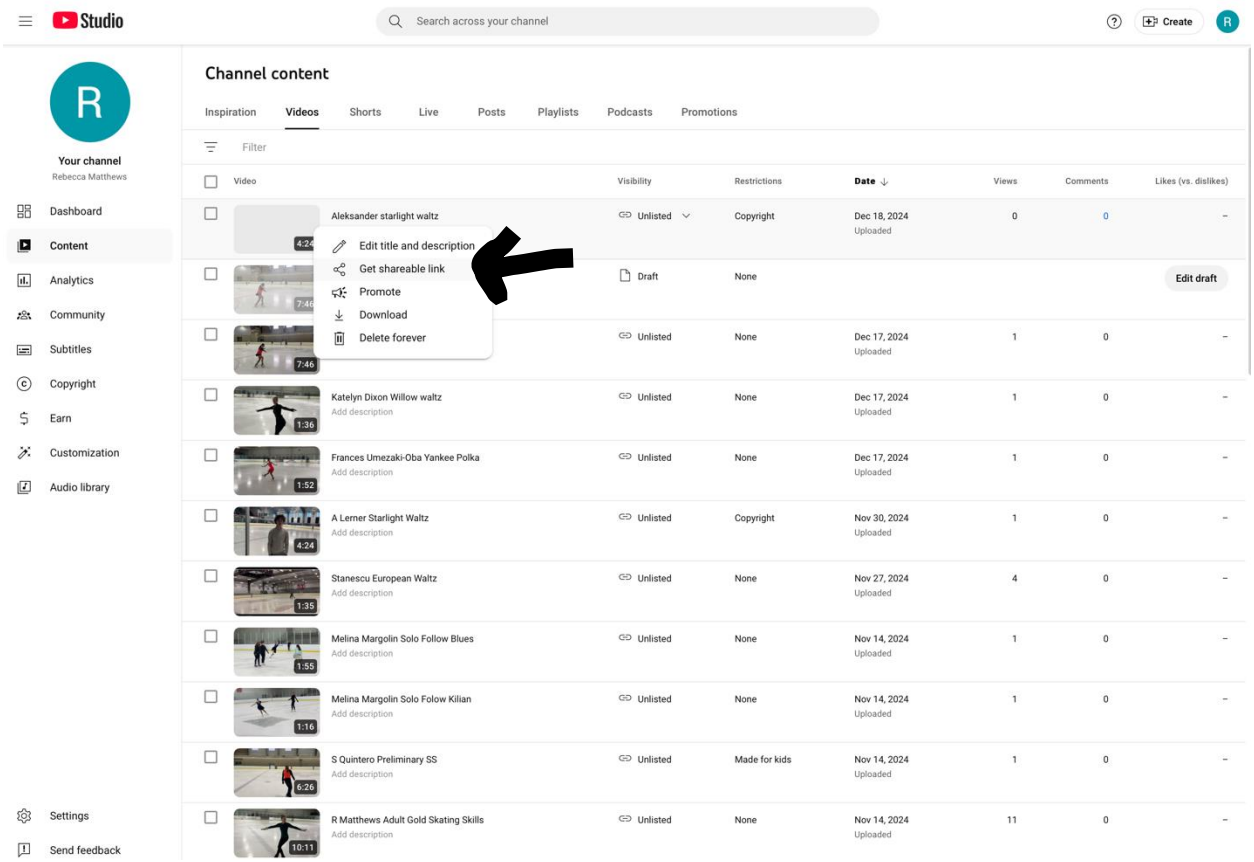
9. Alternate way to get your video link:

*Go to your YouTube homepage and click on Your Videos



You'll see a list of your videos; hover your mouse over the video, and this menu will pop up; click on the three dots (options):





Next, click "get shareable link." Copy and paste the link and send it to the test chair.
